

Christmas Quiz XIII

All answers are the names of countries or regions. All clues are based purely on the name of the country or region and any connection to the nature of the country or region is entirely coincidental. Names are the standard English name of the country or region. All reference sources are permitted. Answers will be available from Epiphany from www.edrith.co.uk with honour and glory to the highest scoring individual/team. Please email me with your completed answers before Epiphany for a chance at victory or the honour roll.

Europe
1	Pirate exclaims during categorical denial
2	Common British meteorological phenomenon exponentiates
3	Dappled French mountain
4	Mum's gone there
5	Sounds peckish
6	Singing in a small lake
7	Antelope from the former tax office
8	An untidy person before a reversed advanced computer
9	Cockney cetaceans
10	Bottom left quadrant of paradise
11	Famous ranger makes one fewer pirate's sound
12	Short jazz instrument upon 25 th letter
13	Where it mainly rains on the plain
14	Sign indicating animal lair
15	Country of fishes?
16	Not particular as to whether bacteria, virus or fungus
17	A perfectly typical Andrew
18	One thousand ancient eggs
19	Enquiry of employee looking for the personnel department
20	Alex's winning card
Middle East and Africa
21	Scottish to know you
22	Could Egyptian sun god be Canaan's supreme deity?
23	Controversially hanging
24	Permit a notorious district of London to overlap
25	Talk excessively
26	What I did on sports day
27	Jailer missing centre
28	A partisan of David
29	How a town crier might call to adult male residents.
30	Merkel undergoes a vowel shift
31	Affleck is at home
32	How one might refer to a male goose
33	Michael or Katie?
34	A high plain of good luck
35	A patriotic Frenchman's response to a suggestion that he fly British Airways
36	Sounds like a period spent in line
37	Legislation between mother and me
38	Concerning birth
39	Brave new happy drug precedes a colloquial small country
40	Aller or gehen
The Americas
41	Probably not, because she saw something nasty in the woodshed.
42	Not an old pullover
43	Isle of the Black Prince
44	Sounds like I formerly possessed a weeding implement
45	Sneezing between holy communion and badger dens
46	A man, a plan, a canal:
47	Block poor quality operating system

48	The principal fifth letter
49	Sounds like it could be either hot or cold
50	Denoting the first baby lion
51	Valuable minerals, nearly all departed
52	Famous Trotter cognisant of danger
53	Euro's predecessor precedes love without end
54	Tell Alice to question the first letter
55	China's leader comes between a personal pronoun and company
56	Join? Personally sever.
57	Scrambled South Sea paradise lacks tea
58	Beseech a Chinese emperor to explain his reasons
59	Loch Ness Monster forwardly displays top marks
60	One of the knights whose horse Factors looked after
Asia, Australasia and Oceania
61	A humorous rapid punch
62	Wager after a drink with jam and bread
63	How a German might respond to a command from the Greek god of the wild
64	Write to short Angela
65	Belonging to Elizabeth
66	Scottish mountain named after a colloquial young woman
67	Sacred Japanese mountain precedes an indefinite article
68	£1.05
69	South African extinct flightless bird
70	Archipelago of a wise king
71	You go with the third person to read perfectly with the first – all in French
72	A singing operating system
73	Spain's king thinks longingly of his lost armada
74	Knock out a large, flightless, cockney bird
75	Lumberjack's tool overlaps an anise-based drink
76	Forbid shady trees – be quiet!
77	Cheer on the first letter
78	A friend in Northumbria
Former countries and regions
79	How one could describe an esquire bedell
80	A legume before the largest country in the world
81	Confused praise
82	Target a stance between a meditating sound, backwardss
83	A half-fish version of the American spy agency
84	Density comes before a German sustainability impact assessment
85	Operatic song sung by Captain Vimes
86	International measurement system in the morning
87	Bad odour of an overturned fastened cloth, inter alia
88	Homer's neighbour
89	Feline animal fodder
Imaginary and Fictional
90	Define the function hen^{-1} over all non-ocean regions.
91	Literary kestrel precedes Planck's Constant
92	Fifty crippled predecessors to Windows
93	Summon a trumpet
94	Sunset love
95	Both or either
96	Divine spirit of a place of French gold
97	Old age; alternatively, a commotion
98	Sounds like a female lion
99	Two shillings
100	Stifling heat, not off	